

THE NEMO ALUMNI EDITION

WELCOME

by Francesca La Bop

Hello Hampstirs! It has to be a long time since you are hearing the Francesca voice! Well, I think you must know that I am missing you much. So much fun to be had in Hampshire! But now real world, which can be fun but also something sad sometimes. Dorms are good.

What is changed since the Francesca La Bop graces the campus? One big thing is different: THE INTERNET. The internet is the most big change in a long long time! There are several things in internet that are big things:

1. My Space. First is with the bands, and now is with EVERYONE! Especially young people in Middling School and lonely “co-edds.” I love the messages from Tom!
2. WikkingPedia! I know everything now!
3. LolliCats. I am not understanding these. The cat wants cheeseburger! Why you are lu-aghing?
4. YouToob. I like watching things like the Otters who hold one anothers little pause! Is cute. And hey—DRAMATIC HAMPSHIORE! Getting it?
5. eBay. What has happened? No one dis-cusses this anylonger..

Any way, I wish these things had been in the exitence when I was a student of Hampshire! But we had fun anyway. What do you things do for fun? Probably it involves the Internet! Haha.

PUBLIC SAFETY BLOGGER...
THE ALUMNI ADDITION!

There was a big gas truck explosion or something in Chicopee. I hope everyone is all right!

The war in Iraq is continuing apace.
Mission accomplished?

Prescott: Someone was throwing up in the quad. They were also shouting and breaking glass afterwards. If you’re an EMT and you’re reading this, please respond!

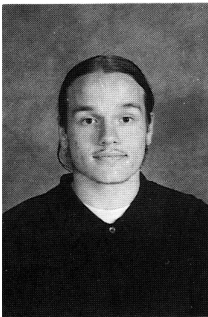

Dakin: The guy above me was playing his music really loud on Tuesday night. I called Public Safety to make a noise complaint. We’ll see if he does THAT again soon!

NEMO SPORTS SECTION:

Have you heard of golf? TIGER WOODS IS AWESOME! Also Jack Nicklauson is pretty cool; and a good actor. You may have seen him in the front row at the Oscars, but have you seen him on the putting green? DAMN! What a sweet stroke! Birdie!

THIS NEMO IS A BAD IDEA.

LETTER(S)(?) TO THE EDITOR

Dear Editor of the Nemo,

Isn't this joke over yet? I don't get it!

Signed,

Jacob Chabot.

Dear Jeph Jacques,

We appreciate your letter, and we're great big fans of Questionable Content.net. Can we score a free t-shirt? We tried to get some from Jacob Chabot who does Skullboy, but he only has lady tanks in stock.

Signed,
Nemo Editor.

Dear Editor of the Nemo,

Your recent piece on the instability of the Middle East angered and offended me. Can you please go back in time and unpublish it?

Signed,

Halliburton J. Pumpkinsqueeze
